

The Pillow Book (2 pages)

You arrive in what appears to be the Heian period of Japan.

You see a woman rearranging some papers after they have been ravaged by who you can only assume to be Tick. The woman, Sei Shōnagon, was assembling lists when Tick came in and stole a letter from each pile of words. Can you help set things right?

Red-breasted bird things

loss	low	ate	act
rain	heat	how	jam
rave	rip	lobe	hut
mice	ire	rill	web
rub	ash	rove	zip

Things that people are irritated and frustrated

fled	scape	merge	vent
bird	lapse	halt	meet
sane	loper	motional	prune
pilot	lite	heart	jumpy
wane	very	quip	rode

Extremely transporting goods in bulk by a train things

ail	arrow	early	usurp
umber	try	mouse	iris
ova	lee	outside	sword
ever	odor	globe	agar
it	ape	ether	size

(continued on next page)

Things that are unpleasant to a pronoun for a woman

sow	bet	corn	gain
use	head	ore	side
hymn	maze	rose	hate
melt	long	vast	shed
rasp	mend	take	muse

Things that give a liver-like impression

art	act	here	rob
romp	sap	dip	pond
enfold	will	worn	elves
heater	chest	spells	cower
rust	ease	error	crime

Things that should be a person who receives or entertains guests

ice	ant	oil	nap
add	emit	ooze	idle
oath	ally	tough	able ilk	age	fig	lot
bony	evert	ivy	omen

— — — — —